Making good times even better

- Six-member group
- Optional horn section
- Wide variety of popular dance songs
- Flexible, reliable and professional
- Fun and entertaining
- Complete sound and lighting system

There's something different about live music. Whether it's feeling the energy projected by the rhythm section, watching the facial expressions of the singer as he/she belts out a high note, or simply interacting with the band as they play your favorite songs ...

The Band

A six-member band based in southwest Ohio, This Side Up is all about great music and having fun. We offer a unique blend of songs from all genres that are guaranteed to get audiences singing along, dancing or even playing the occasional air guitar. Take that, mix in excellent musicianship, a professional attitude, add a sprinkle of the best vocal harmonies around, and you've got a recipe sure to leave you wanting for more at the end of the night. If you're looking for a band with contagious enthusiasm that keeps your audience engaged and entertained, then look no further. We'll ensure your event is memorable and will make a good time even better. Ask about our additional 3-piece horn section for a "bigger" sound and feel!

The Music

The diversity of a jukebox with the visual excitement of a live show – This Side Up gives you the best of both worlds. We take tremendous pride in learning the distinct musical details and “hooks” of each song and spend hours working out vocal harmonies to make songs sound just right. Our sound, presentation and performance can be summed up with one word: professional.

Our extensive song list spans several decades of some of the most popular dance songs. We cover songs by artists such as:

Journey • Earth Wind & Fire • Pink • INXS • Gwen Stefani • The Bee Gees • Pat Benatar • The Eagles • Stevie Wonder • Jason Mraz • John Mellencamp • Sheryl Crow • Johnny Cash • Bon Jovi • The Pretenders • U2 • James Brown • and more!

The Equipment

This Side Up uses state-of-the-art sound and lighting equipment and takes care to ensure that the music you hear is clear and balanced. Our equipment* allows us to play as quietly or as loudly as you prefer and still sound great.

*Larger venues may require additional equipment rental.

Weddings

Planning the details of a wedding can be fun – yet stressful. From the dress and the flowers to the reception hall and the cake, there are simply too many things to worry about! You can be confident about your decision to hire This Side Up as your band so you can focus on enjoying your once in a lifetime experience.

This Side Up is easy to work with and flexible down to every last detail. Whether you want to play an active role in selecting the specific songs we perform, or prefer to leave that up to us: you can trust that the entertainment portion of your big day will run smoothly.

The reception is a celebration of YOU. We want you to be the life of the party as we bring your party to life. Say “I do” to This Side Up and let ‘the entertainment’ be one less thing you have to worry about. You and your guests will have a great time!

Corporate Events

What better way to reward your staff and raise employee morale than to get together with everyone for an award dinner, holiday gathering, company picnic or end-of-year celebration? Make it an unforgettable event by livening up the atmosphere with a band.

This Side Up is adaptable and can cater to your specific requirements. We can provide background music for your enjoyment, integrate into your planned program or be fully interactive with your group. Imagine the fun and camaraderie experienced by handing an executive a tambourine or cowbell to play along with the band – your group will go wild! Those who had merely planned to “show up but not stay long” will end up staying until the last note has been played.

Festivals, Parties, Events

Live music can often “make” an event, helping to draw a crowd, engage them and create a more memorable time for everyone. This Side Up enjoys performing at festivals, private parties, fundraisers and just about ANY special occasion. Our shows are great for family friendly entertainment or nostalgic get-togethers. We expect your group will be left cheering for one more song.
